Dear Paul

Re: 30th Anniversary Celebrations of The Ulster New Zealand Trust

Dilworth Trust Board is immensely pleased to congratulate you on the occasion of the 30th anniversary celebrations of The Ulster New Zealand Trust, which I understand are taking place in the grounds of The Ballance House tomorrow!

Dilworth greatly values the special history and links that exist between the peoples of Ulster and New Zealand, as particularly evidenced for us by the close ties between Dilworth School and the Royal School Dungannon, where our founder and benefactor James Dilworth was educated. James Dilworth was, as you know, a proud Ulsterman.

We hope that our small gift of the bronze Maquette miniature replica of the magnificent Dilworth Cross, which stands in the grounds of our Auckland school campus and is itself a physical representation of the Donaghmore Cross, appropriately acknowledges the depth and heartfelt nature of our connection to Ulster and to Northern Ireland.

I would also like to add my personal congratulations on this auspicious occasion and wish you all the best for your celebrations tomorrow.

Yours sincerely

DILWORTH TRUST BOARD

Aaron Snodgrass
CHAIRMAN
