Volunteering with the Ulster New Zealand Trust

Take the opportunity to make friends, meet like-minded people, develop new skills, have some fun and involve yourself in the community, or just enjoy being part of a great team of people.

The restored Ballance House is situated in the scenic Co Antrim countryside near Lisburn. Filled with history, artefacts and original features, there is something for everyone to explore and learn about the cultural links between Ulster and New Zealand.

Come and join us to see what it's all about!

How you can help

- Volunteer at our family events and join us for special occasions
- Help with catering in the tea barn
- Get creative with organising children's activities
- Guide and educate visitors on Ulster & New Zealand links
- Storytelling about John Ballance and other renowned Ulster folk
- Highlight and promote our work
- Hands on tasks around the House and grounds

UNZT strives to create a diverse and inclusive community and is committed to ensuring equality of opportunity for our volunteers in our practices. We seek to involve volunteers from all sections of the community.

“Being a UNZT volunteer brings great satisfaction: providing guided tours and catering for our many visitors at frequent special events, during our open season and for group visits by numerous organisations. Our cheerful, co-operative team ensures wide public access to this remarkable cultural and educational venue”.

Helen McClenaghan, UNZT volunteer for over 9 years.
